Branches of the Ladies' Land League throughout the provinces complain loudly. Their meetings were dispersed, while the Central League in Dublin was permitted to meet unmolested. NEW YORK STOCK MARKET

A Bullish Feeling on the Street.

The Gould Party Predict a Respectable Boom.

Small Depositors in Banks Buying Bonds.

Other Features of the Market.

NEW YORK, November 3, 11 a.m.—The stock market opened irregular but in the main firm, and prices immediately took an upward turn and continued to improve steadily until an advance had been recorded of 1 to 1 1/2 per cent, the latter for Metropolitan Elevated, which sold up to 105 1/2. Northwestern rose from 125 1/2 to 127 1/2; ditto preferred, from 133 1/2 to 135 1/2; St. Paul from 108 1/2 to 109 1/2; Denver and Rio Grande from 8 1/2 to 8 3/4; Union Pacific from 120 1/2 to 121 1/2; Michigan Central from 94 1/2 to 95; and Lake Shore from 12 1/2 to 12 3/4. Subsequently Metropolitan Elevated fell off to 104, and the general list reacted a fraction. Speculation was characterized by a fair degree of activity, and some large blocks of leading shares changed hands. A bullish feeling preponderates in the street. That portion of Vanderbilt's following which was bearish until within a day or two is now said to have covered shorts. The Gould party intimates that developments in Erie, Missouri Pacific, Reading, Pacific Mail, Northwestern and other stocks will give impetus to a speculation which will result in a very respectable boom. A good deal of investigation into bank affairs is in progress. Thus far, however, nothing has been developed to further disturb confidence. It is noticeable that small depositors are withdrawing their funds from the banks and buying government bonds. The bond sellers report an unusually large retail business. The advance in Erie was accompanied by the following rumors: That Gould will be made president of the company and Vanderbilt appear as a director; that Vanderbilt has 100,000 shares of Erie; that there were large orders to buy yesterday on foreign account; that Keene was a heavy buyer; that the rise was on account of the settlement of the railroad war on large earnings, and probable payment of a dividend on preferred stock. The conspicuous fact is that Erie stock has not been found in loans of late, and has been apparently going out of the market. It is understood that John R. Duff of Boston will be the next president of the Hannibal and St. Joe road. The Mobile and Ohio will soon open a freight line from Mobile to Chicago via the Wabash. Wheat moderately active and higher.

To-day's Weather. WASHINGTON, November 3.—For the Tennessee and Ohio valley, clearing and fair weather, northwest to southwest winds, slightly lower temperature, rising followed by falling barometer. For lower Missouri valley, generally fair weather, slight rise in temperature, westerly to southerly winds and falling barometer.

Another Schooner Gone Down. PORT COLBORNE, November 3.—The schooner Comanche, grain laden, sunk in Welland canal, about one mile from this port to-day.

AN OLD PAPER.

The Somerville Reporter of July 19, 1845.

Memphis Advertisements and Style of Locals.

Somerville (Tenn.) Reporter, Nov. 2, 1841.

We are indebted to Mr. T. H. Webb, of LaGrange, for a copy of the Somerville Reporter, printed July 19, 1845—more than thirty-six years ago.

John C. Reeves and Robert J. Yancy were at that time the editors and publishers. At the masthead of the paper we notice the following ticket: For Governor, Ephraim H. Foster; for Congress, P. T. Scruggs; for State Senator, Charles Stewart; for Floater, Wm. T. Avery; for House of Representatives, George Thompson.

The merchants at that time advertising were as follows: A. Kahn & Co., Vernon Rhodes, E. C. Ford, W. D. Wilkerson (druggist) and Owen & Palmer. The only professional card in the paper is that of Wm. G. Turner, attorney at law, LaGrange, Tenn.

Sanier, C. White, druggist; Hill, Hancock & Co., commission merchants and dealers in dry goods; Wm. T. Williams, commission Merchant, and the card of Fletcher's Hotel, are the Memphis advertisements. Several legal notices and patent medicine advertisements also appear in the following announcement of Phillips Academy: "Fourth Session of Phillips' Male and Female Academy (one mile northwest of Somerville) will commence on the first Monday in July next (7th). All branches of knowledge necessary for admission to any class in College taught here. The charges for tuition will be as follows: Latin—Reading, Writing, Spelling and Arithmetic, $3. Grammar, Geography, etc., $12. Latin, Greek, French, Spanish, Mathematics, etc., $15. Board, lodging, washing, etc., $7 per month. For the character of this school, apply to its patrons and the neighborhood. Geo. S. Phillips, Principal.

A very favorable report of the examination of the pupils of the Female Academy, from Wm. H. Blake, A. B. Washington and Wm. H. Maury, (attorney), is published. Marshall Rhea, Esq., was then Principal of the Academy and was assisted by his daughter, Mrs. Long, sister of the late John C. Humphreys, had charge of the music department. With the exception of this report and several announcements of deaths and marriages, the only local items in the paper are the following:

"MORE CRUELTY COMFORTS.—Major A. M. Shaw gave us the other day a noble tomato, which weighed two pounds. If the size of the vegetables we devour, and the kindness of nature be taken as indications of our condition, it is reasonable to suppose we are 'growing fat' despite the very hot weather. Who will say now that Fayette cannot show as fine garden produce as her neighbors?"

THE LARGEST POTATO YET.—R. Watkins, Esq., sent our townsmen Mr. H. Owen, on Wednesday last, a dozen Irish potatoes, which weighed nine pounds. Mr. Owen sent three of the lot to us which are the finest we have ever seen—the heaviest weighed 1 lb. 1 oz.

An Apoptrophe to the Shyster and His Client. WILLIS HAY, in the River Column of the 27th of October, has written a very clever and amusing article on the "shyster" and his client. We have more regard and respect for a man, rascally negro or white man who will listen to and let an unprincipled "shyster" put him up to the dirty business of bringing a suit against a steamboat for the purpose of being the boat out of a "compromise" and dividing the "spoils," than we have for the "shyster" himself. We can look a skunk in the face till he grows bald-headed. We could stay in a close room with a polecat until he died of starvation. We could wrestle with a dog, with the manag until his tail dropped off. We could sit up with a sick nigger and the seven-year itch during the summer months for ten years. We could stand still and stomach all that was low, mean and contemptible in man or beast, but the Lord knows, we have no way, shape or form on God's green earth for a thing in the image of a man who is mean enough to put a nigger up to suing a steamboat, and then have the cheeky impudence to disgrace the high and dignified name of the law by standing up in the noble and virtuous presence of justice and defending a black, unprincipled nigger in his dirty work—a nigger who would sit astride of his mother's coffin beside a new-made grave gazing to receive it and play "count" until the bones within rattled so loud that he couldn't hear it thud. A shyster like that would spit in the very face of justice and send his client to hell in forty minutes after the trial was over or a compromise was effected if he thought he could get back the paltry little sum he had just received as his share of the transaction.

It is time, for the sake of justice and in defense of the dignified and honorable name of law, that all such niggers, all such shysters, and all such cases as they create were thrown out of the courts altogether, for if justice was allowed to exercise her duty, the nigger and the shyster alike would be doing the State some service by spending their disgraceful lives at hard work in the penitentiary.

Important Supreme Court Decision. Vicksburg Herald. On Monday, a decision was rendered by the Supreme Court on an appeal from the Circuit Court of Washington county, which is of great importance to many persons in what is known as the Levee District. An attempt was made to prove that the tax collector, Weber, had failed to give the bond required by the "Liquor License Act" of 1857, which had been held essential to entitle the collector to collect the 5c per acre levee tax, or to sell land in default of payment. But the Supreme Court decided that in view of the amendatory act of 1873, declaring that after five years from the date of the tax sale the same should not be impeached on account of the officer's failure to comply with the prerequisites of sale, this evidence was inadmissible. The decision, in effect, shuts off all defenses to the titles acquired by the Liquidating Levee Board, and adds greatly to the value of the recent purchase made by the Vicksburg and Memphis railroad company. Opinion by Campbell, J.

Canon Campello, the Roman priest, who has just become a Protestant, is connected with many of the leading families of Rome. His nephew, Count Paolo, who has large estates, married the sister of Cardinal Bonaparte, the Princess Mary Bonaparte, the granddaughter of Lucien, brother of the first Napoleon.
